Bulletin # 18-6 Race license and ASQ medical examination day

The new racing season will arrive soon.

Do not forget to renew your license by the end of March at your local sanctioning body.

For those who need a medical for 2018, Auto Sport Québec organizes its last day of medical examination of the season.

Provided by Auto Sport Québec

Here are the details :

Last of the season Saturday March 24

For the second time this year, Auto Sport Québec will hold a medical examination day with a physician. After having examined you, he will fill your medical examination form necessary to obtain your competition license.

This event will take place on Saturday, March 24 at our office at the Olympic Stadium (4545 Pierre-De Coubertin). The fee of $125 will be payable on the premises, in cash or by cheque.

With reservations, you will also have the opportunity to renew your tetanus shot for $25 more. (if we have at least 10 persons)

For appointment : info@lasq.ca or 514-252-3052.
